

Embracing the New Normal for Finance Teams

Why Now is the Time to Go 100% Digital

Remote working is becoming the new normal. Finance professionals – and indeed the rest of the workforce – are grappling to maintain communication, collaboration and productivity. Take your collections 100% digital and be up and running in weeks with Anytime Collect.

AR Challenges in the New Normal:

- Increased work and manual tracking
 - Confirmations
 - Installment plans
 - Promise-to-pays
- New barriers
 - Personal phones
 - Access to documentation
 - Paper checks
- New oversight
 - Tracking and reporting activities
 - Daily forecasts

Put simply, we help collect cash 4 ways:

- 100% Digital Workspace
Manage your receivables from anywhere. Obtain the tools to manage collections activities of a remote team successfully & seamlessly.
- Automated Customer Communication
Deliver personalized, timely communication to every customer based on the status of their invoices.
- Customer Self-service
Give customers online access to invoices, payments, and communications to save time for everyone.
- Collections Activity Management
Empower your team with productivity tools designed for AR that give a 360-degree view of customer and provides comprehensive activity management.

“Anytime Collect is a great tool for us collectors to make it easy for all who are faced with working from home. Stay home and use Anytime Collect!!! 😊”

– Linda Boucher, Credit Manager,
Pattison Signs

“The automatic email templates that we have going out are a game changer in these times. I absolutely think that the auto emails are essential in a time like this.”

– Michelle Wilson, Credit Manager,
BEGA

“Anytime Collect has been a god send right now. It enabled us to really run very smoothly. Also, it’s helping me monitor the activities that are in the system, who’s doing what, allowing us to share notes on accounts. Without having access to someone face-to-face, now I can go into Anytime Collect and see everything that’s been done. “

– Karen Wandrup, Director, Credit and Collections, World Shipping
